

Bio – Nathalie Burrows

Position: Editor, EBnet

Having spent 30 years in the retirement funds industry, Nathalie is able to bring the technical legislation and regulation to life with practical experience and personal stories. Having served in many different capacities: as an employee benefits consultant, an individual financial planner, a Principal Officer, and an Information Officer, gives her a deep appreciation and understanding of each role player's perspective.

Nathalie has a BCom degree, a Post Graduate Diploma in Financial Planning and is a Certified Financial Planner®. She is currently the Editor of EBnet, an independent and collaborative community for retirement fund, investment and financial planning stakeholders, and Deputy Editor for Pensions World SA.

Nathalie's passion is uplifting knowledge and understanding of the complex world of savings and investment.
